Welcome and Announcements

Today we celebrate Holy Communion during our LOTV zoom worship connection! Each person or household that wishes to participate will need to prepare some bread (or crackers) and wine (or juice) at home and have it readily available before our worship begins. Then, during the Great Thanksgiving, when Pastor Brian lifts the Bread at the altar during the Words of Institution, everyone at home will do the same, lift their bread. Then again, the same with the wine (or juice) when Pastor Brian lifts it.

Following our praying together The Lord's Prayer, Pastor Brian will again lift the Bread and say, "the Body of Christ, given for you." At this time everyone at home will take bread and eat. If you are single, simply eat as Pastor Brian speaks "given for you." If there are two or more at home you will serve one another repeating the same words, "The body of Christ given for you." There will be a pause as Pastor Brian and Karen share communion which will also allow time for everyone at home to receive the bread element. Then Pastor will repeat the same with the Cup saying, "The blood of Christ, shed for you." Again, everyone at home will do the same. Pastor Brian will pause once more to allow time for everyone at home to receive the cup. After he has returned the bread and cup to the altar, Pastor Brian will share the blessing and the service will continue.

LOTV Worship with Holy Communion

Confession and Forgiveness

P) Blessed be the Holy Trinity, Father, Son, + and Holy Spirit, who forgives all our sin, whose mercy endures forever!

C) Amen

P) God of all mercy and consolation, come to the help of your people, turning us from our sin to live for you alone. Give us the power of your Holy Spirit that we may confess our sin, receive your forgiveness and grow into the fullness of Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord.

C) Amen

P) Let us confess our sin in the presence of God and of one another. Most merciful God,

C) we confess that we are captive to sin and cannot free ourselves. We have sinned against you in thought, word and deed, by what we have done and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. For the sake of your Son, Jesus Christ, have mercy on us. Forgive us, renew us, and lead us, so that we may delight in your will and walk in your ways, to the glory of your holy name.

Amen

P) God who is rich in mercy, loved us even when we were dead in sin, and made us alive together with Christ. By grace you have been saved. In the name of + Jesus Christ, your sins are forgiven! Almighty God strengthen you with power through the Holy Spirit, that Christ may live in your hearts through faith.

C) Amen

P) The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with you all.

C) And also with you.

Scripture Readings

After each reading –

Reader: The Word of God for the People of God.

ALL: Thanks be to God.

Isaiah 44: 6-8

Thus says the LORD, the King of Israel
and his Redeemer, the LORD of hosts:
I am the first and I am the last;
besides me there is no god.
Who is like me? Let them proclaim it,
let them declare and set it forth before me.
Who has announced from of old the things to come?
Let them tell us what is yet to be.
Do not fear, or be afraid;
have I not told you from of old and declared it?
You are my witnesses!
Is there any god besides me?
There is no other rock; I know not one.

Romans 8: 12-25

So then, brothers and sisters, we are debtors, not to the flesh, to live according to the flesh— for if you live according to the flesh, you will die; but if by the Spirit you put to death the deeds of the body, you will live. For all who are led by the Spirit of God are children of God. For you did not receive a spirit of slavery to fall back into fear, but you have received a spirit of adoption. When we cry, 'Abba! Father!' it is that very Spirit bearing witness with our spirit that we are children of God, and if children, then heirs, heirs of God and joint heirs with Christ—if, in fact, we suffer with him so that we may also be glorified with him.

I consider that the sufferings of this present time are not worth comparing with the glory about to be revealed to us. For the creation waits with eager longing for the revealing of the children of God; for the creation was subjected to futility, not of its own will but by the will of the one who subjected it, in hope that the creation itself will be set free from its bondage to decay and will obtain the freedom of the glory of the children of God. We know that the whole creation has been groaning in labour pains until now; and not only the creation, but we ourselves, who have the first fruits of the Spirit, groan inwardly while we wait for adoption, the redemption of our bodies. For in hope we were saved. Now hope that is seen is not hope. For who hopes for what is seen? But if we hope for what we do not see, we wait for it with patience.

Gospel Reading

Congregation: Thanks be to God.

Matthew 13: 24-30, 36-43

[Jesus] put before them another parable: 'The kingdom of heaven may be compared to someone who sowed good seed in his field; but while everybody was asleep, an enemy came and sowed weeds among the wheat, and then went away. So when the plants came up and bore grain, then the weeds appeared as well. And the slaves of the householder came and said to him, "Master, did you not sow good seed in your field? Where, then, did these weeds come from?" He answered, "An enemy has done this." The slaves said to him, "Then do you want us to go and gather them?" But he replied, "No; for in gathering the weeds you would uproot the wheat along with them. Let both of them grow together until the harvest; and at harvest time I will tell the reapers, Collect the weeds first and bind them in bundles to be burned, but gather the wheat into my barn.'" '

Then he left the crowds and went into the house. And his disciples approached him, saying, 'Explain to us the parable of the weeds of the field.' He answered, 'The one who sows the good seed is the Son of Man; the field is the world, and the good seed are the children of the kingdom; the weeds are the children of the evil one, and the enemy who sowed them is the devil; the harvest is the end of the age, and the reapers are angels. Just as the weeds are collected and burned up with fire, so will it be at the end of the age. The Son of Man will send his angels, and they will collect out of his kingdom all causes of sin and all evildoers, and they will throw them into the furnace of fire, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth. Then the righteous will shine like the sun in the kingdom of their Father. Let anyone with ears listen!
